

Joe Bertagna is a Pennsylvania native and graduated from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University in 1995 with a Bachelors of Science Degree in Aeronautical Science. After graduating from college, he served in the United States Marine Corps from 1996-2016. During this time, he served as a Harrier pilot, an Unmanned Aircraft Systems (UAS) Officer, and served in recruiting both as a recruiter and staff officer. He deployed a total of four times in support of both OIF and OEF. Joe Bertagna is a recipient of the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Since his retirement from the Marine Corps, Joe has been a full-time employee of RecruitMilitary. As a National Account Executive, Joe's primary role is to generate new business through a consultative approach. He has guided both small businesses and Fortune 50 companies to success in their veteran hiring programs. Joe was selected as RecruitMilitary's Rookie of the Year in 2016.
