

Biography

Kim Kerrigan is an unshakeable optimist, and her passion is adding value to others. She believes together we can achieve the Pinnacle of success, no matter what size or type of organization.

Described as “caring and inspirational coach/leader with a rare ability to connect with differing personality styles, "Kim has devoted her life to help advance a vision of the world where leaders and teams work together to achieve a common goal while adding value to each other.

Kim is an extremely capable leadership professional with over 20 years of HR management in public and private sectors. Kim has an ardent desire to help leaders, aspiring leaders and HR professionals attain the skills necessary to be successful and organizations reach their goals.

Kim is the Founder & CEO of Pinnacle People & Leadership Solutions, holds an MBA-Leadership from Post University. Kim is also a Maxwell Leadership Certified Team Member specializing in Leadership Development, Keynote Speaking, Coaching, and DISC Consulting.