

Michael Butterfield

Mike Butterfield has over 22 years of experience in insurance, team building and law enforcement. He is a partner with a worksite insurance sales agency and outdoor furniture business. Mike has been responsible for recruiting, developing and training top sales professionals and has been recognized as a President Club Award winner numerous times with some of the largest insurance carriers. He has been a leader in team building, mentorship and human development.

Prior to his partnerships, he was a police officer with the Cape May Township Police Department. He serves as a Member of the South Jersey Volunteer Fire Company.

Mike is a 1996 graduate of Rowan University. He resides in Cape May Court House, NJ with his wife and five children and two dogs.